At its meeting held December 9, 2003, the Board took the following action:

7

Supervisor Antonovich made the following statement:

“On November 14, 2003, President George W. Bush issued a memorandum to Federal department and agency heads, which provided authority to grant five days of uncharged leave to returning military reservists. The President’s memorandum states that the Federal Government serves as a model for employer support of service members.

“The County of Los Angeles remains committed to the support of our dedicated employees who respond to the call to serve our Nation during these tenuous times. We recognize that these courageous individuals give of themselves to serve our Nation at great personal sacrifice to themselves and their families.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Antonovich, seconded by Supervisor Burke, unanimously carried, the Director of Personnel was instructed to explore the feasibility of a five-day leave provision for County employees returning from active duty in response to the Worldwide Terrorist Crisis; and report back to the Board within 30 days.
